

Foundation Grants

Corporate foundations	Programs Funded	Special initiatives	programming	restrictions
Eastman Chemical Company Foundation	Education	The Eastman Chemical Company Foundation makes contributions to nonprofit organizations that work to improve the quality of life in communities where Eastman employees live and work.	K-12 and higher education, with emphasis on literacy and STEM (science, technology, engineering, and math). health, wellness, and safety; Application Deadlines: July 31, annually Total Annual Giving: $2,500,000 Grant Range: $100 - $200,000 Average Grant: $500 - $5,000	individuals, athletic teams or sports-related events, choirs, or drill teams; fraternal, social, or political organizations; or, travel-related expenses, including student trips or tours.
Con Edison Strategic Partnerships Program	Education Environment Civics	Con Edison awards grants for specific projects rather than for general operating support. Consideration of requests for multi-year or capital grants is given strictly on a case-by-case basis.	The company supports programs that enhance educational endeavors of students in K-12 and on through college. Support is provided to programs that enrich math, science, engineering, energy, and technology curricula. Application Deadlines: Applications are accepted from March 1 to October 1, annually. Total Annual Giving: $10,000,000	Con Edison does not award grants to/for: private foundations; individuals; labor groups; public schools;
The New York Community Trust	Thriving Communities The Trust supports organizations that protect and create affordable housing, promote equity in the arts, improve civic engagement, and protect the environment.	Promising Futures The Trust aims to build promising futures by helping young people thrive, providing job training and placement, making educational and justice systems work for everyone, alleviating hunger and homelessness, improving family and child welfare services, and advancing the practice of social work.	Total Annual Giving: $165,429,000 Grant Range: $5,000 - $200,000 Average Grant: $80,000 Application Deadlines: October 14, 2015, and February 10 and May 5, 2017	individuals; endowments; capital or building campaigns; equipment;
The William E. and Maude S. Pritchard Charitable Trust	Supports nonprofit organizations in Suffolk and Nassau counties, New York.	community-based healthcare, with a focus on primary care access and delivery;	community-based healthcare education, with a focus on early education and K-12 public schools;	individuals; private foundations; matching gifts; or, loans.

		education, with a focus on early education and K-12 public schools;	Total Annual Giving: $784,000 Grant Range: $15,000 - $100,000 Application Deadlines: June 1, annually
Frances and Benjamin Benenson Foundation	One of the Foundation's main areas of interest is improving the education of minority youth in New York City.	the environment; health, including medical research; human rights; Jewish organizations; and, social services	Total Annual Giving: $2,526,000 Grant Range: $100 - $100,000 Average Grant: $100 - $25,000	Not provided, but would follow preceding
Jockey Hollow Foundation	Arts and culture, including the performing arts and museums; children and youth; community development, including historic preservation; education;		: $787,000 Grant Range: $700 - $40,000 Average Grant: $1,000 - $10,000
Walton Family Foundation	K-12 Education Reform The Foundation invests in programs that empower parents to choose the best education for their children. The Foundation is committed to improving K-12 education in the United States at every level, including traditional public schools, charter public schools, and private schools	The Walton Family Foundation seeks to spark innovation and creativity in addressing critical social and environmental issues.	Total Annual Giving: $375,000,000	Application Procedures: The Foundation does not accept unsolicited proposals, except from public charter school developers who meet certain criteria.
Westinghouse Electric Company Charitable Giving Program	STEM Education Grants are provided to organizations that aim to improve knowledge and literacy, with a focus in the areas of science, technology, engineering, and math among students, teachers, and the general public.	Community Safety and Vitality Grants are provided to organizations that aim to improve the overall quality of life within a community through initiatives that enhance safety, health, and public well-being.	Application Deadlines: April 1, June 1, and October 1, annually	organizations without an Internal Revenue Code 501(c)(3) nonprofit, tax-exempt status; United Way member agencies receiving direct allocations or grants from any

				United Way Impact or General Fund; organizations over 50 miles from a Westinghouse site;
Dr. Scholl Foundation Grant	Over the past decade, approximately 28% of the Foundation's grants have been related to education, 28% to social services, 22% to hospitals and healthcare, 17% to civic and cultural with the remaining percentage spread out in other categories.		Grants ranging from $5,000 to $25,000 to USA nonprofit organizations for a broad range of programming in areas such as healthcare, social services, education, environment, civic, and cultural.	-Organizations that do not have a valid IRS 501(c)(3) determination letter -Organizations that cannot provide us with at least 3 years of financial activity -Political organizations, individual campaigns legislation
William T. Grant Foundation	two categories of research: - Research that increases understanding of programs, policies, and practices that reduce inequality in youth outcomes	- Research that identifies, builds, and tests strategies to improve the use of research evidence in ways that benefit youth.	Research grants on reducing inequality typically range from $100,000 to $600,000. Improving the use of research evidence grants will range from $100,000 to $1,000,000. Officers' Research grants for both initiatives cover budgets up to $25,000. Grants to USA researchers at nonprofit institutions for investigations into practices and policies that inform the lives of American children and youth ages 5 - 25. May 3, 2017 at 4:00 pm EST	The Foundation rarely or never funds: - Research institutes or programs. The large majority of our funding supports investigator-initiated research that is consistent with our focus areas.